PLAINTIFFS' RESPONSES AND OBJECTIONS TO DEFENDANT
DUBAI ISLAMIC BANK'S THIRD SET OF REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

Plaintiffs in all of the above-captioned related actions, by their undersigned attorneys, object and respond pursuant to Rule 36 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, to Defendant Dubai Islamic Bank's ("DIB") Third Set of Request for Admission to Plaintiffs, dated June 25, 2021 as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

1. Plaintiffs object to the Defendant's Requests for Admission to the extent they call for the plaintiffs to identify information in the possession, custody, or control of the Defendant, including but not limited to any documents drafted, published, or received by the Defendant. Moreover, until Defendant has provided full disclosure in response to the Plaintiffs' discovery requests, Plaintiffs are unable to determine what information is in the possession, custody, or control of the Defendant.

2. Plaintiffs object to the Defendant's Requests for Admission to the extent they call for the plaintiffs to identify or produce documents or information not within the care, custody or control of the plaintiffs.

3. Plaintiffs object to the Defendant's Requests for Admission to the extent they call for the plaintiffs to identify information equally or more readily accessible to the Defendant and/or which is readily obtainable independently from the public domain.

4. Plaintiffs object to the Defendant's Requests for Admission to the extent they call for the plaintiffs to identify information protected by the attorney-client privilege, work product protection, any joint prosecution and/or any other applicable privilege, or which were otherwise prepared in anticipation of litigation or preparation for trial that contains information, conclusions, opinions or legal theories of attorneys, or which are otherwise protected from discovery. Plaintiffs and their counsel hereby assert these privileges. In particular, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, information contained in letters, memoranda, and other writings transmitted by or between plaintiffs and their counsel, or information contained in writings prepared and maintained internally by Plaintiffs' counsel, are privileged and will not be produced.

5. Plaintiffs object to the Defendant's Requests for Admission to the extent they call for the plaintiffs to identify documents or information that is non-discoverable expert information not required to be disclosed under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

6. Plaintiffs object to the Defendant's Requests for Admission to the extent they are vague, ambiguous, overly broad, unduly burdensome, do not specify the information sought with sufficient particularity, are not limited to the subject matter of the litigation, seek information in defendant's control, and/or are not relevant to the claims or defenses in this case and are thus creates a burden not proportional to the needs of this case.

7. Plaintiffs object to the Defendant's Requests for Admission to the extent they purport to characterize plaintiffs' claims, allegations, or contentions in a manner that attempts to mischaracterize or redefine plaintiffs' claims. Plaintiff objects to the identification or production of any information in response to any such Requests for Admission is not intended as nor shall it be deemed to be an admission or representation that plaintiffs concede to Defendant's mischaracterizations or baseless assumptions here.

8. Irrespective of whether Plaintiff provides information in response to the Requests, Plaintiff further reserves the right to: (i) amend, correct, supplement or clarify the content of this Response in accordance with the Federal Rules; (ii) provide additional responsive information in the future; (iii) object to further discovery in the action; (iv) rely upon any information and documents produced in the action, in any hearing or proceeding, including, without limitation, any hearing, proceeding, or trial in the action; and (v) challenge the authenticity or admissibility in any proceeding, hearing, or trial of any information or documents.

9. The above-stated General Objections are hereby specifically incorporated into each of the plaintiffs' following responses to discovery requests, whether or not expressly repeated in response to a particular request.

OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES

REQUEST NO. 1:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Ali Abdul Aziz Ali.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 1:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 1 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Ali Abdul Aziz Ali.

REQUEST NO. 2:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Fayeze Rashid Ahmed Hassan Al-Qadi.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 2:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 2 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Fayeze Rashid Ahmed Hassan Al-Qadi.

REQUEST NO. 3:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Khalid Amer Salim Ballayth.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 3:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 3 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Khalid Amer Salim Ballayth.

REQUEST NO. 4:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Mamdoh Mahmoud Salim.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 4:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 4 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Mamdoh Mahmoud Salim.

REQUEST NO. 5:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Ahmed Ali Jumale.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 5:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 5 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Ahmed Ali Jumale.

REQUEST NO. 6:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Barakaat Bank of Somalia.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 6:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 6 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Barakaat Bank of Somalia.

REQUEST NO. 7:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Al Baraka Exchange LLC.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 7:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 7 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Al Baraka Exchange LLC.

REQUEST NO. 8:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer International Islamic Relief Organization.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 8:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 8 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer International Islamic Relief Organization.

REQUEST NO. 9:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Seedi Al Madani Al-Ghazi Mustafa Al Tayyib.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 9:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 9 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Seedi Al Madani Al-Ghazi Mustafa Al Tayyib.

REQUEST NO. 10:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Ali Saleh Mohammad Kahla Al-Marri.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 10:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 10 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any involvement in Al Qaeda by its customer Ali Saleh Mohammad Kahla Al-Marri.

REQUEST NO. 11:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Ali Abdul Aziz Ali's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 11:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 11 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Ali Abdul Aziz Ali's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PEC DIB000839-842 and PEC DIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 12:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Fayeze Rashid Ahmed Hassan Al-Qadi's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 12:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 12 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Fayeze Rashid Ahmed Hassan Al-Qadi's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PEC DIB000839-842 and PEC DIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 13:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Khalid Amer Salim Ballayth's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 13:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 13 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Khalid Amer Salim Ballayth's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PECDIB000839-842 and PECDIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 14:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Mamdoh Mahmoud Salim's DIB accounts Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 14:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 14 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Mamdoh Mahmoud Salim's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PECDIB000839-842 and PECDIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 15:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Ahmed Ali Jumale's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 15:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 15 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Ahmed Ali Jumale's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PECDIB000839-842 and PECDIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 16:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Barakaat Bank of Somalia's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 16:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 16 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Barakaat Bank of Somalia's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PECDIB000839-842 and PECDIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 17:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Al Baraka Exchange LLC's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 17:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 17 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Al Baraka Exchange LLC's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PECDIB000839-842 and PECDIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 18:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of International Islamic Relief Organization's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 18:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 18 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of International Islamic Relief Organization's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PECDIB000839-842 and PECDIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 19:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Seedi Al Madani Al-Ghazi Mustafa Al Tayyib's DIB accounts by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 19:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 19 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Seedi Al Madani Al-Ghazi Mustafa Al Tayyib's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin

Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PECDIB000839-842 and PECDIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 20:

Admit that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Ali Saleh Mohammad Kahla Al-Marri's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda's purposes.

RESPONSE TO REQUEST NO. 20:

Subject to and without waiver of each of the General Objections above, Plaintiffs object to Request No. 20 to the extent it calls for Plaintiffs to identify information in possession, custody, and control of the Defendants. Subject to and without waiver of all objections, following a reasonable inquiry and diligent search, the information known or available to Plaintiffs is insufficient to enable Plaintiffs to admit or deny that there is no evidence that DIB had any knowledge or awareness, prior to the September 11 Attacks, of any use of Ali Saleh Mohammad Kahla Al-Marri's DIB account by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes. However, Plaintiffs assert that the context and focus of the meeting between a U.S. and Emirati officials, in addition to information sourced from a senior U.S. official regarding DIB's involvement with Osama bin Laden, reported in the New York Times article "U.S. Officials Say Air for Terrorist Came Through Two Persian Gulf Nations" by James Risen with Benjamin Weiser (produced by Plaintiffs at PECDIB000839-842 and PECDIB000813-815 and by DIB at DIB000880-884), indicate that someone at DIB was aware it held accounts being used by Al Qaeda or for Al Qaeda purposes.

REQUEST NO. 21:

Admit that the document produced at BUR-PEC014984-14987 does not contain the phrase or mention in any way an "Islamic Bank of Dubai."
